Our Changing LivesOur lives. However, it is a blessing that we can once again come together to participate in the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist. It is up to everyone to realize that, "everything is not about me". We must have consideration for those whom we meet in our daily lives. Sure, it can be an inconvenience to stay home if you are sick, maintain social distancing, wear a face mask, sanitize your hands, and the list goes on. However, if we follow the golden rule of "do unto others as you would have them do unto you" (Matt. 7-12), then we must do our part to make everyone safe. Please review, regularly, the guidelines from the Diocese and the specific guidelines for St. Edward's. Let's do our part to keep everyone healthy.

Be Safe!
