St. Edwards Parish wants to thank the Stanleys for the many years of service they have given to the parish – Stan as the Chair of the Hospitality Committee and Gaby for leadership of Religious Education – and expect their service will continue for many years to come! They are ready to step back a little and let someone else take on these committee positions.

The Hospitality Committee is one that you can make what you want of it. We need someone to ensure that we have paper products in the kitchen and coffee in the canister. We need someone who can organize SAM Sundays and other events during the year like funeral luncheons and the one-and-only chili cookoff! But, you can put your own stamp of leadership on the committee; continue a tradition or start your own, we can help to find others to lead each event or you can do it all. Help us to think outside the box!

Religious Education entails ensuring that everyone in our parish has the opportunity to learn about the Catholic faith and grow in our traditions, prepare for the sacraments, and enrich our lives. We need someone to take on the leadership of this committee to ensure our children, adults, teachers, and group leaders get the materials and information they need.

Are you interested in becoming more involved in our parish? Prayerfully consider these options and let a member of Parish Council know your thoughts.

Father Boat’s Birthday-Father Boats birthday is on Thursday, June 13. We would like to take up a collection to give him next Sunday the 16th. IF you would like to donate toward his birthday $ gift, please give your donation to Gaby or Stan today or next Sunday BEFORE Mass. Any checks need to be made out directly to Father Boat, not the church. Thanks*

Daily Prayer This Week

Having celebrated God's love for us through the Eucharist on Sunday, we are ready to enter this week to explore the depth of that love and the powerful call each of us is given to love one another. The Sermon on the Mount can help us be contemplatives in action this week. The Beatitudes are not eight new commandments. Rather, Jesus saw those following him and saw their weakness and their need, their goodness and their desire, even the cost they pay to follow him. He looked at them and called them "Blessed."

Let us all begin this week letting Jesus look at us and call us blessed. Each morning we can practice choosing to focus our attention on some way we are spiritually poor or desiring justice, some way we are merciful or a peace maker, some way we might be experiencing the cost of being a believer, and simply asking our Lord to convince us of our blessedness there. It is likely that each of us, every day, can be attentive to some aspect of our daily lives, some part of our relationships or responsibilities, that place us right there in a place for Jesus to tell us that we will be comforted, satisfied, blessed beyond our imagining.

Some day this week, each of us will have the opportunity to be the salt that makes relationships, faithful living, have its flavor. We will have our chances to be light in the midst of the darkness that crosses our paths. We can ask Jesus those days - whether in the morning, or in brief background moments during the day - to have us not lose our flavor or to cover our light. And, all of us will face the greater responsibility of a disciple of Jesus, to avoid anger and find the path to reconciliation, to turn from lust and greed and to love genuinely and honestly.
