Daily Prayer This Week

On Sunday we hear about the rich young man. He wants to “inherit eternal life” but has no real interest in changing his life. Don't we all feel that way? Isn't there something we can just read? Some money we can donate? We go away sad because Jesus asks a lot of us - to really follow him.

Whether or not we have a clear picture of where we are being called by Jesus, we can feel the invitation, the call to our hearts, in the silence. We can take just a few minutes each morning as we awaken to sit by the side of the bed and open our hands and hearts and pray, “Jesus, in this quiet moment, I feel my heart being drawn to you. Help me to see this day where you are calling me.”

We can repeat this small act on our way to work, taking our children to school and walking to the store. “I know you are in my heart, Jesus. I know you are calling me this day, but my heart is not always open to listen. Help me to answer your call today. At the end of this day, help me to be joyful in answering your call through those in my life.”

So many of the stories this week are clashes between Jesus and the Pharisees. We can ask ourselves: Where in my life do I worry more about appearances than I do the poor who are in front of me? Who are “the poor” in my life? Who are the outcasts, the unpopular or the rejected people I see each day? How can I minister to those people and be a leaven in this world?

At the end of each day this week, we can be grateful for the many opportunities we were given to follow along with Jesus. We can ask the Holy Spirit to help us see the invitation in our lives every day and ask for the clarity to recognize “the poor.” When I see the poor, the outcasts, those whose health or habits make them unappealing, do I love them the way Jesus would? Can I look at the brusque and rude people in my life as people Jesus would have gravitated toward, sensing how much they need love?

LOCAL HURRICANE HELENE RELIEF

We have researched this week and found some places to donate that will help people right here in the NRV. Addresses are below if you are interested:

United Way of SW VA

PO Box 6202

Christiansburg, VA 24068

On the memo line put Disaster Relief-(then you can put NRV, or specific location you want your money to go to such as Pulaski, Dublin, Draper, Hiwassee, etc.) 86% goes directly to the relief

American Red Cross

PO Box 37839

Bozeman, IA 50037-0839

On the memo line put Hurricane Helene-NRV in VA if you want

Belspring United Methodist Church

PO Box 190

Belspring, VA 24058

Make check payable to Belspring UMC and on the memo line put Flood Assistance Fund. 100% goes directly to the cause.

Pulaski Library

The library is collecting snacks, individually wrapped foods, and bottled water for workers/volunteers in our local area who are helping with the clean-up. Any donations can be dropped off at the library or brought here to Sally on Sundays.
